DONNA HERRICK

(Vocals - Mandolin - Guitar)

Award-winning recording artist, songwriter, producer, and musician, Donna Herrick is a rare force, one listen is all it takes. From the Pacific Northwest to Nashville's Music Row, the consensus is the same: Donna Herrick's soulful, unmistakable voice sets her apart. She is the real deal.

With a powerhouse vocal often compared to Ann Wilson, Donna bridges the gap between where country music has been and where it's going. Her sound is bold, instinctive, and deeply original, blending country grit, soul, and roots into something that feels both timeless and forward-leaning in a town crowded with formula-driven acts.

A self-taught mandolin player who neither reads music nor follows convention, Donna developed a distinctive, driving style entirely her own. Her performances are marked by commanding vocals, fierce musicianship, and an undeniable presence that holds rooms and leaves lasting impressions.

In the studio, Donna has worked with multi-platinum producers including Buddy Cannon (Kenny Chesney), Mark Bright (Rascal Flatts), Chuck Howard (LeAnn Rimes), Snake Reynolds, Michael Bonagura, and others — while earning recognition as an award-winning producer in her own right.

As a songwriter, Donna has collaborated with Nashville greats including Walt Aldridge, Monty Holmes, Karen Staley, Alex Harvey, and Craig Wiseman, yet her creative process remains instinct-led, emotional, and unapologetically human.

Donna Herrick doesn't chase trends. She creates on feel, fire, and truth.

The result is a sound and a presence that is strictly Herrick. A true frontwoman... not just heard, but felt.

KERRY HERRICK

(VOCALS - BASS GUITAR - HARMONICA)

Kerry Herrick comes from deep musical roots in the backwoods of southern Arkansas, raised in a family steeped in southern gospel tradition. A singer-songwriter, producer, and multi-instrumentalist, Kerry picked up his first guitar at age nine, learning music the old way, by playing alongside family.

Drawing influence from Kris Kristofferson and Merle Haggard to Eagles and Led Zeppelin, Kerry developed a songwriting style rooted in storytelling, grit, and feel rather than formula.

Married to Donna Herrick at 16, the two moved to Nashville together, building a career grounded in partnership and persistence. Over the years, Kerry has shared the stage with legends including George Jones, Kenny Chesney, and Hank Williams Jr., as well as modern acts like Zac Brown Band and Miranda Lambert. As a bassist and harmony vocalist, Kerry provides the solid rhythmic foundation and signature vocal blend that anchors the Herrick live show — surrounding Donna’s voice and helping create the unmistakable Herrick sound.

RICHIE RIVERA

(DRUMS - PERCUSSION)

“It’s all about getting a reaction and the best way to do that is to do the unexpected.” — Richie Rivera

Richie Rivera is a dynamic, high-impact drummer whose trademark is energy, precision, and showmanship. Hailed by Music Connection as “one of the most exciting drummers around,” Richie moves effortlessly between hard rock power, tasteful pop restraint, jazz fusion finesse, and modern country feel. A natural entertainer, Richie’s infectious, ear-to-ear smile is as much a part of the show as his playing instantly connecting with audiences and pulling them into the performance. It’s a genuine joy that radiates from the stage and reinforces the band’s chemistry, keeping rooms engaged from the front row to the back wall.

Technically formidable and emotionally present, Richie doesn’t just keep time, he creates moments. He began studying drums at age 11 and was recording professionally before he could drive. His songwriting career includes work with Blurred Vision featuring Adam Levine (Maroon 5), with later projects earning international airplay, including spins on 95.5 KLOS.

Now based in Nashville, Richie is the rhythmic anchor of Herrick, delivering a live show that’s powerful, engaging, and impossible to ignore!

ENDORSEMENTS:

JON WISECARVER

(LEAD GUITAR)

Jon Wisecarver is the lead guitarist for Herrick, bringing grit, edge, and emotional punch to the band's live sound. Rooted in country, rock, and Americana, his playing balances raw intensity with restraint, serving the song while delivering moments that hit hard and stay with the audience. Jon's instincts on stage, dynamic control, and feel-driven approach help give Herrick its muscular, road-tested edge.

ENDORSEMENTS:

DAVID VAN WALKER

(KEYS- SNTH- BACKING VOCALS)

David Van Walker is a pianist, producer, songwriter, and composer who plays a key role in shaping the musical depth and cohesion of Herrick. With chart success as a writer and producer in both the U.S. and Europe, David brings a seasoned, professional perspective to the band's sound. A trusted creative partner, David has co-written extensively with Herrick and co-produced the albums Cottonfields and Christmas With Herrick, along with contributions to multiple other releases. His approach emphasizes song-first arrangements, emotional clarity, and dynamics that translate powerfully to the stage.

In addition to band projects, David's experience composing for film and television adds a cinematic sensibility that enhances Herrick's live performances and recordings alike. His musicianship and collaborative mindset strengthen the band's chemistry, helping deliver a polished, connected show that feels intentional, immersive, and complete.

"Herrick has a musical and vocal sound with its own identity. A rarity these days. If you haven't worked with HERRICK yet, now is the time. Terrific group and awesome to work with."

- RollingStone

"Donna sings with THAT voice again, taking you away to the days of Carey, Houston, Dion and Yearwood."

- Lyric Magazine

"Sunderland Road leads to realms of wistful reflection. It paves the way for a moving set of songs, which, in itself, leads to a most satisfying sojourn overall."

- American Songwriter Magazine

I only needed one listen to tell you that Herrick is the real deal, and may very well contain the next great country female voice of this generation in Donna Herrick."

- Billboard Magazine

It isn't entirely fair or accurate to pigeonhole what it is that Herrick does. This is a band that can flat out rock at crucial points and they aren't afraid for you to know it. The final amazing part is how they can conjure such sonic power with comparatively weak instruments. Herrick never stop entertaining and connect with you from the first song."

- Skope Magazine

"What's that sound? Oh yes, I remember. It's called country music. And I don't mean the overly polished kind that Music Row usually serves us. I mean the Real Deal. I have praised this band effusively in the past. Lead singer Donna Herrick penetrates this percolating track with passion, while her own mandolin sets the throbbing pace of the production. This band has drive, dynamism and drama. Book them."

- Robert K Oermann - Music Row Magazine

"There's honesty gold to this music coming off every song and the band's lead singer delivers them with a passion few can match."

- Vents Magazine

"The quality in Donna Herrick's lead vocal delivery keeps the focus grounded in roots, driven by feel, and carried by the band's unmistakable momentum."

- Alternative Root Magazine
